GEORGIA SAUVIGNON BLANC VINTAGE 2015, NAPA VALLEY

ACCOLADES

95-97 Points

“The 2015 Georgia Sauvignon may turn out to be one of the finest Sauvignon Blancs ever made in Napa Valley, with truly profound concentration and spectacular aromatic fireworks, from honeyed melons and grapefruit to other assorted citrus. It is full-bodied and intense, yet somehow manages not to show any trace of oak aging, which is rather amazing but certainly indicates the level of concentration and fruit in this wine. Anticipated maturity: now to 2030+.”

—Robert Parker, Jr., The Wine Advocate

WINEMAKER NOTES

“Lail’s 2015 Georgia Sauvignon Blanc shows an enticing combination of power, finesse and varietal purity. It has a captivating mélange of citrus, tropical, melon and stone fruit aromas and flavors, and a finish that lingers beautifully. This may be the finest Georgia we’ve yet made.”

OUR STORY

Our story began in 1879 when Robin Daniel Lail’s great-granduncle, Gustave Niebaum, pioneered fine winemaking in the Napa Valley when he founded Inglenook Winery. Inglenook was passed down to Robin’s grandfather and then to her father, John Daniel Jr., a true innovator and wine industry leader who produced legendary wines. In 1995, after years working with other Napa Valley icons (Robert Mondavi, Bill Harlan, Christian Moueix), Robin’s dream of creating her own extraordinary wines set flight when she and her daughters, Erin and Shannon, assembled a multifaceted team of talent and set out on her own by launching Lail Vineyards. Today, the venture carries forward the stories and patina of over 135 years of winemaking into the 21st Century. The family continues its passionate quest to produce the very finest wines from the blend of its ingredients – the land, the seasons, the winemaking team, and the spirit of the generations who led the way.
