GEORGIA SAUVIGNON BLANC VINTAGE 2015, NAPA VALLEY

ACCOLADES

95+ Points

“The 2015 Georgia Sauvignon Blanc is redolent of ripe apricots, passion fruit and guava plus notions of fresh hay, chalk dust and acacia honey. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is positively electric, with intense tropical and stone fruit flavors framed by lively freshness and a satiny texture, finishing long and chalky.”

WINEMAKER NOTES

“Lail’s 2015 Georgia Sauvignon Blanc shows an enticing combination of power, finesse and varietal purity. It has a captivating mélange of citrus, tropical, melon and stone fruit aromas and flavors, and a finish that lingers beautifully. This may be the finest Georgia we’ve yet made.”

GEORGIA STORY

This exquisite, Graves-style (dry white Bordeaux) Sauvignon Blanc was the first of its kind made in California, beginning with the 2002 vintage. Named for Georgia Eileen Dixon, the first member of the sixth generation of our family’s winemaking family in Napa Valley, it is fermented and aged in 100% new French oak barrels for eighteen months. It displays unprecedented depth and complexity, amazing texture, and a long lingering finish. It has been called by a leading wine expert “...California’s most complex and multi-dimensional Sauvignon Blanc.”

OUR STORY

Our story began in 1879 when Robin Daniel Lail’s great-granduncle, Gustave Niebaum, pioneered fine winemaking in the Napa Valley when he founded Inglenook Winery. Inglenook was passed down to Robin’s grandfather and then to her father, John Daniel Jr., a true innovator and wine industry leader who produced legendary wines. In 1995, after years working with other Napa Valley icons (Robert Mondavi, Bill Harlan, Christian Moueix), Robin’s dream of creating her own extraordinary wines set flight when she and her daughters, Erin and Shannon, assembled a multifaceted team of talent and set out on her own by launching Lail Vineyards. Today, the venture carries forward the stories and patina of over 135 years of winemaking into the 21st Century. The family continues its passionate quest to produce the very finest wines from the blend of its ingredients – the land, the seasons, the winemaking team, and the spirit of the generations who led the way.
